To All Secretaries to Govt.

Stating that the Supdt. Govt. Printing & Stationery should be consulted whenever new forms & Registers which are likely to consume more than 100 reams of paper are proposed to be introduced.

"Extract from the minutes of the meeting of the Second Member with the Subject good Doing Star in the Members Chambers on the 18th Nov 1926

Introduction of New Forms and Registers.

G.5796

The Stationery Superintendent brought to notice that New Forms and Registers are introduced by Government without previously consulting him. This makes unforeseen demands on the stock of paper which will not be adequate to meet the sudden demands. The Member suggested that whenever New Forms or Registers which are likely to consume more than 100 reams of paper are about to be introduced, the Stationery Superintender may be consulted as to when he would be ready to supply these forms.
